Mission Statement

*Dedicated to providing the highest degree of law enforcement service
throughout the State of New Hampshire
while maintaining the traditions of fairness, professionalism and integrity.*

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF A STATE POLICE TROOPER I

BASIC PURPOSE

To enforce motor vehicle and criminal laws in order to protect the lives and property of the public, maintain law and order, detect and prevent crimes, apprehend suspects and prosecute violators.

CHARACTERISTIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Arrests suspects, forcibly if necessary, using handcuff and other restraints; subdues resisting suspects using maneuvers, approved weapons, and hands and feet in self- defense.
- Writes investigative and other reports, including sketches, citations, affidavits, complaints, and warrants using appropriate grammar, symbols and mathematical computations.
- Assesses situations to determine when there is reasonable suspicion to detain, when probable cause exists to search and arrest, and when and to what degree force may be used, including the application of deadly force.
- Operates a law enforcement vehicle during both day and night, in emergency situations involving speeds in excess of posted limits, in congested traffic and in unsafe road conditions caused by factors such as fog, smoke, rain, ice and snow.
- Gathers information in criminal investigations by interviewing and obtaining the statements of victims, witnesses, suspects, and confidential informers.
- Pursues fleeing suspects which may involve quickly entering and exiting patrol vehicles; lifting, carrying, and dragging heavy objects; climbing over obstacles; jumping from elevated surfaces; climbing through openings; jumping over obstacles, ditches, and streams; crawling in confined areas; balancing on uneven or narrow surfaces and using body force to gain entrance through barriers.
- Unloads, loads, aims, and fires handguns, shotguns and other firearms from a variety of body positions under stressful conditions that justify the use of deadly force and at levels of proficiency prescribed in certification standards.
- Intervenes in disputes to restore peace and ensure safety of the public and parties involved, including confronting hostile persons, mediating disputes, and advising of rights and processes.
- Reads and comprehends legal and non-legal documents and demonstrates communication skills to prosecute cases in court and other formal settings.
- Searches people, vehicles, buildings, and outdoor areas to detect and collect evidence and substances that provide the basis of criminal offenses and infractions; detains suspicious persons or vehicles.

- Performs rescue functions at accidents, emergencies and disasters to include directing traffic, administering emergency medical aid, and evacuating people away from dangerous situations.

DISTINGUISHING FACTORS

Skill: Requires skill in recommending routine changes in standardized operating procedures OR in retrieving, compiling, and reporting data according to established procedures OR in operating complex machines.

Knowledge: Requires knowledge of business practices and procedures or technical training in a craft or trade, including working from detailed instructions, to apply knowledge in a variety of practical situations.

Impact: Requires responsibility for contributing to immediate, ongoing agency objectives by facilitating the direct provision of services to the public or other state agencies. Errors at this level result in inaccurate reports or invalid test results and require a significant investment of time and resources to detect.

Supervision: Requires no supervision of employees or functions.

Working Conditions: Requires performing regular job assignments in an extremely disagreeable or dangerous working environment with continuous exposure to an uncontrollable number of hazardous elements, including occupational accidents, injuries, or diseases which result in total disability or death.

Physical Demands: Requires medium to heavy work, including continuous physical exertion such as frequent bending, lifting, or climbing.

Communication: Requires summarizing data, preparing reports, and making recommendations based on findings which contribute to solving problems and achieving work objectives. This level also requires presenting information for use by administrative-level managers in making decisions.

Complexity: Requires a combination of job functions to establish facts, to draw daily operational conclusions, or to solve practical problems. This level also requires providing a variety of alternative solutions where only limited standardization exists.

Independent Action: Requires a range of choice in applying a number of technical or administrative policies under general direction and making routine decisions or in recommending modifications in work procedures for approval by supervisor.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Associates degree or 60 credit hours from a recognized college, university or technical institute with major study preferably in criminal justice or the equivalent.

Experience: No experience required.

OR

Education: High School Diploma, GED, or its equivalent.

Experience: Two years of experience comprised of any one of the following:

- A) One year as a full time certified police officer and one year of honorable military service, either intermittently or full time, OR
- B) Two years as a full time certified police officer, OR
- C) Two years of honorable military service, either intermittently or full time.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

1. Age/Citizenship: Must be at least 21 years of age and a U.S. citizen either prior to or on scheduled date of examination administration.

2. Eyesight and Hearing: Must have at least 20/40 in each eye uncorrected and corrected to 20/20 in each eye and have normal uncorrected depth and color perception; must possess normal hearing sufficient to enable performance of essential job functions.

3. Examinations: Candidates must successfully participate in a physical agility test designed to measure ability to perform essential job functions which are physically demanding tasks encountered in job performance. Candidates must also successfully participate in a written examination and structured interviews. Before appointments are made, candidates will undergo comprehensive background investigations, polygraph examinations and psychological examinations. Candidates who do not have a record free of serious offenses will be ineligible for appointment. After conditional offers of appointment have been made, prospective appointees must pass a comprehensive medical examination provided at state expense. The physician administering medical examinations will be selected by the N.H. Division of State Police. No physical conditions can exist prohibiting appointees from performing the duties and responsibilities of the State Police Trooper I position. All candidates will be subject to unannounced drug testing at any point during the selection process. Additional information on required examinations can be obtained from the N.H. Division of Personnel and N.H. Division of State Police Recruitment and Training Unit.

4. Police Officer Certification: Candidates must be able to obtain police officer certification within the time frame established by the New Hampshire Police Standards and Training Council. Must maintain police officer certification throughout tenure of service.

5. Residency: Candidates must be willing to accept employment ANYWHERE in the state. With offers of employment, appointees will be assigned a troop area and patrol. Prior to completion of Phase II (Field Training Officer) Training, appointees must establish residency within their assigned patrol area.

6. License/Registration: Appointees must obtain a New Hampshire driver's license and registration within 60 days of establishing residency in New Hampshire.

RECOMMENDED WORK TRAITS

- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with federal, state, county and local agencies.
- Must be willing to maintain appearance appropriate to assigned duties and responsibilities as determined by the agency appointing authority.

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

Since law enforcement officers are required to enforce the law and are exposed to certain temptations to show favoritism, corruption, or unlawful monetary gain, it is a “business necessity” that officers exhibit a history and characteristics of honesty, reliability, ability to manage personal finances, interpersonal skills and integrity.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

The New Hampshire State Police is seeking only the most qualified individuals for positions as State Police Trooper I. The purpose of the personal background qualifications is to obtain specific information regarding the applicant's background, integrity, honesty, ethics, and abilities, so that the standards of law enforcement as a profession may continue to rise. The personal conduct of each person being considered for a conditional offer of employment, especially conduct related to criminal or unethical behavior, is considered critically important in determining acceptability for a State Police Trooper I position. Therefore, a candidate WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE if he or she has:

- Used marijuana within 12 months.
- Illegally used a controlled substance, other than marijuana, within 36 months, unless the applicant was under 21 years of age at the time of use, in which case 24 months shall apply.
- Manufactured, transported for sale, or sold a controlled substance.
- Used a controlled substance while employed in a law enforcement capacity.
- Been dishonorably discharged from military service.
- Been convicted of a felony.
- Been convicted of a misdemeanor involving dishonesty, unlawful sexual conduct, physical violence, controlled substances, moral turpitude, or any offense which would cause a reasonable person to doubt the applicant's character, honesty, or ability. See the partial list of examples on the following pages.

If, after reviewing the Essential Functions of a State Police Trooper I and the Minimum Qualifications, you are NO LONGER INTERESTED in employment with the New Hampshire State Police, fill out the Voluntary Withdrawal Form and return this packet immediately to:
